Introduction to the Ten Commandments (Keeping the Faith, pp. 16-17)

1. By nature human beings have some ability to tell the difference between right and wrong. We call this our _____ . In Romans 2:14-15 Paul says that God's law is written on our _____ .
2. However, because of sin, sometimes our understanding of right and wrong becomes blurry. List some ways people compromise on God's law:
  - a. _____
  - b. _____
3. The truth is that all sin leads to _____ .
4. God gave His law first to His people on _____ .
5. The Ten Commandments are God's _____ for living and the _____ for society's best laws.
6. They can be divided into two tables:
  - a. The First contains commandments _____ - _____ and is about our relationship with _____ .
  - b. The Second contains commandments _____ - _____ and is about our relationship with _____ .
7. Draw the most common symbol for the Ten Commandments.
